Mrs. Anuradha Mookerjee, B.Sc (Botany), M.Sc & M.Phil in Social Anthropology, was Topper of the 1986 batch of the Indian Revenue Service. She has been a bureaucrat for over three decades, equipped with deeper insights into the socio-economic fabric of our nation and the direction and path we need to tread on to better enrich the lives of its citizens. As a social anthropologist, the disconnect of urban India with her larger rural counterpart has always been something she has been eager to rectify. Her first endeavour in this direction was successfully improving the sustainable livelihood of thousands of folk artistes living below the poverty line by initiating a sustainability project during a deputation as Director of the Eastern Zonal Cultural Centre. The artisans were given skill upgradation, capacity building and marketing linkages were developed giving them sustainable livelihood and the folk traditions got revitalised. Now she intends to contribute to the development and character-building of our urban children- the future bureaucrats, professionals and politicians of our country- by fostering a connection between them and the world of rural India.

In the opinion of the Board, Mrs. Anuradha Mookerjee fulfils the conditions specified in the Companies Act, 2013 (the Act) and rules made thereunder for his appointment as an Independent Director of the Company and is independent of the management. The Company has received consent from her in form DIR-2, and confirmation that she does not suffer any disqualification under section 164 and 165 of the Act in form DIR-8 and declaration of Independence under section 149 (7) of the Act to the effect that she satisfies the condition laid down in section 149(6) of the Act. ITEM NO. 9:

In terms of Regulation 17 (6) (a) of the SEBI (LODR) Regulations, 2015 approval of the shareholders in general meeting is required for payment of all compensation to the non-executive directors, including independent directors. Further, as per section 197(1) the remuneration payable to directors who are neither managing directors nor whole-time directors shall not exceed one percent of the net profits of the company, if there is a managing or whole-time director or manager, except with the approval of the company in general meeting, by a special resolution. Accordingly, approval of the Shareholders by ordinary resolution is required for payment of remuneration to the non-executive directors within the limit of 1% of net profit of the Company.

The shareholders at their Annual General meeting held on December 31, 2018 passed similar resolution for payment of Commission to the Non-Executive Directors (NEDs) for a period of five years w.e.f. FY 2018-19. Since the five-year term is expiring in FY 2022-23, the Board of Directors in terms of Regulation 17 (6) (a) of the Listing Regulations read with section 197 of the Act, recommended the resolution set out at item no 9 for the consent of the shareholders by ordinary resolution for payment of Commission upto 1% of profit to the NEDs.

NEDs and their relatives may be deemed to be concerned or interested in this resolution to the extent of the remuneration that may be received by them.
